Date: 05.12.2025

Time: 10.30 am

Venue: Outdoor Stadium

Brief Report:

The Health and Fine Arts Club (Shift II) of Auxilium College (Autonomous), Vellore, organized a creative and culturally enriching event titled “Mehendi Marvels” on 5th November 2025. The competition was held with the theme “Festive Fingers / Cultural Curves”, aiming to promote artistic expression, cultural appreciation, and student talent through traditional mehendi art. The art was judged Dr. Geetha, Assistant Professor & Head i/c, Department of English, Auxilium College (Autonomous), Vellore.

The competition brought together enthusiastic participants from different departments who showcased their creativity through intricate mehendi designs. The theme encouraged the participants to integrate cultural motifs, festive patterns, and traditional artistry. The event created a vibrant atmosphere, fostering student engagement, cultural expression, and hands-on skill development. The judge evaluated the participants based on design originality, neatness, theme relevance, creativity, and application technique.

The Mehendi Marvels competition was conducted successfully with active participation from students and wholehearted support from the management and organizing committee. The event reflected the college’s commitment to holistic development and cultural enrichment of the student community.
