

Event : Preventive Vigilance Programme

Date : 08/09/2026

Organised by : Auxilium College (Autonomous)

Academic Year : 2026 – 2027

Report:

The Preventive Vigilance Programme was conducted with great enthusiasm and active participation from the students. The programme began with a welcome address, followed by a prayer song. The respected Sr. Principal Dr. Sr. Arokia Jayceli delivered an inspiring talk.

Later, the Regional Officer gave an introduction about the programme and explained its importance. This was followed by a Vigilance Pledge in Tamil, taken by all the participants. The Vigilance Officer also encouraged the students to register with the Central Vigilance Commission.

The programme continued with various student activities, including a poster presentation and slogan competition, which showcased the students' creativity and awareness.

The programme concluded with the speech competition, where students expressed their views on vigilance and integrity. This was followed by the distribution of prizes to the winners of the speech competition, poster presentation, and slogan competition. As the participants had registered for the pledge, pledge certificates were generated and distributed to them.

The programme concluded successfully with a renewed spirit of responsibility, integrity, and vigilance among the students.
