Report :

On 5th February 2026, a Resource Talk on “Engage Yourself in Sustainability” was organized by the PG and Research Department of Chemistry, Auxilium College (Autonomous), Vellore, at the Library Seminar Hall at 2.00 p.m. The programme commenced with a prayer, invoking God’s blessings for the successful conduct of the session. Ms. R. Amreen Banu from I M.Sc., Chemistry introduced the Chief Guest, Mr. N. Joseph Amitharaj, Senior Product Consultant, Dennys enterprises, Innovative water and Energy solutions. Mr. N. Joseph Amitharaj delivered an insightful and engaging talk on sustainability, with a special focus on water and energy solutions. He highlighted the importance of sustainable practices in the present scenario and explained practical approaches to addressing water and energy challenges. He also shared valuable information about career and job opportunities available in his company related to water and energy solutions, motivating students to explore professional avenues in this emerging field. The session successfully created awareness among students about sustainability and the vast career prospects associated with it. The programme concluded with a vote of thanks proposed by Ms. A. Roseline Elizabeth, expressing gratitude to the Chief Guest and all those who contributed to the success of the event. The session ended by encouraging students to explore innovative and productive opportunities offered by the company and to apply their academic knowledge in practical and professional fields. The students from PG and Research department of Physics, Auxilium College and the research Scholars from Muthurangam Arts and Science College were also participated in the association. The I M.Sc., students acted as MC, guided the prayer before the session, welcomed the gathering, introduced the resource person, took care of the technical aspects and proposed the vote of thanks.
